

BRITISH TRANSPORT
POLICE

Our mission is to work in partnership with others to help build a safe railway environment that is free from disruption and the fear of crime.

BTP TARGETS 2006-2007

Operational targets

Objective	Target
Violence and sexual offences	To protect the travelling public and rail staff by detecting at least 46% of all violence and sexual offences.
Staff assaults	To protect staff on the railways by detecting at least 46% of all assaults on staff.
Hate crime	To safeguard rail staff and passengers by detecting at least 42% of all hate crimes.
Robbery	To combat robbery on the rail network by detecting at least 34% of all robberies.
Anti-social behaviour	To combat disorder on the railway by increasing the number of offenders brought to justice for anti-social behaviour offences by 2%.
Theft of passenger property	To protect passenger's belongings by reducing the amount of theft of passenger property offences by 5%.
Route crime	To work in partnership with the railway industry in combating vandalism on the railway by detecting at least 12% of all route crimes.
Fatality management	To conclude police activity which disrupts train movement within an average of 90 minutes from receiving a report of a fatal incident.
Quality of service	To provide a victim-focused service by ensuring that the overall satisfaction of victims of crime on the railway is at least 79%.
Football banning orders	To combat football hooliganism on the railway by applying for football banning orders in at least 85% of relevant football-related offences.
Graffiti	To prevent graffiti on the railway by increasing the number of detections for graffiti offences by 10%.

Counter terrorism targets

Objective	Target
Preventing and Disrupting Terrorism	To prevent and disrupt terrorist activity, and maintain an effective response to both suspected and actual terrorist incidents and threats by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Ensuring that at least 8% of all officers are trained in the use of CBRN Mark 4/CR1 suits. ■ Participating in at least 90% of national and local Home Office TPU counter terrorist exercises where there is a relevant railway scenario impact. ■ Carrying out CBR profiling in selected locations once every 28 days in 90% of the 28 day periods. ■ Maintaining a permanent specialist response capability.

Organisational targets

Objective	Target
Recruitment of black and minority ethnic, and female staff	In order that BTP further reflects the community it serves, ensure that by 31 March 2007: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The number of black and minority ethnic officers is no less than 5.9% of total police officer strength. ■ The number of black and minority ethnic officers in specialist posts is no less than 4.5% of total police officer strength in specialist posts. ■ The number of female officers is no less than 16.5% of total police officer strength. ■ The number of female officers in specialist posts is no less than 15% of total police officer strength in specialist posts.