Introduction

This bulletin contains crime and performance statistics for the year 1 April 2015 to 31 March 2016. Where appropriate, a comparison is given for the previous year.

The crime/offence figures are collated from British Transport Police's (BTP's) computerised crime reporting system, CRIME. The recording of crime is not static and the figures represent a snapshot in time, i.e. the state of the system at 31 March 2015 and 2016.

BTP compiles crime statistics for England, Wales and Scotland. In England and Wales these statistics are broken down into geographical areas (Subdivisions) as illustrated on the map.

In B and C Division (England and Wales), crimes fall into two groups: notifiable offences, which are serious offences that have to be reported to the Home Office; and non-notifiable offences, which are less serious offences not reported to the Home Office.

In D Division (Scotland), all crimes and offences are reported to the Scottish Government and published in its bulletin.

The groups are then broken down into 12 crime categories:

- violence against the person
- sexual offences
- criminal damage
- line of route offences
- theft of passenger property
- motor vehicle/cycle offences
- robbery
- theft of railway property
- public order offences
- fraud offences
- drugs
- other crimes

Crime statistics should be treated with caution. Dramatic fluctuations, whether up or down, can be misleading and, if misused, statistics can contribute to the fear of crime. Hundreds of millions of passenger journeys are made safely each year and the statistics should be viewed in that context.

The following points are given for guidance:

Crime statistics are not always accurate indicators of risk. Police activity to target particular offences, changes in reporting patterns and other factors can affect reported crime figures.

Total notifiable crime increased by 4% in 2015/16 to 48,718 after falling for 11 consecutive years.

Within these figures, motor vehicle/cycle offences were down by 468 offences (6%).

Drug offences fell by 593 offences (25%) and notifiable public order offences decreased by a further 367 (8%)

However, there were 1,948 more violence against the person crimes (21%) and sexual offences were up by 553 (40%).

Total notifiable and non-notifiable offences were down by 647 (1%) in 2015/16 with a total of 77,437 recorded.
