Request

You asked us:

I am writing to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 for access to the full research report titled "Body Worn Video (BWV) in the Rail Industry," conducted by the University of Cambridge and commissioned by the Rail Delivery Group (RDG) and British Transport Police, published in 2024. Specifically, I am requesting:

- 1. A complete copy of the report, including all sections, findings, methodology, data, and recommendations.
- 2. Any associated appendices, datasets, or supplementary materials provided as part of the research.
- 3. Any correspondence or agreements between BTP and the University of Cambridge or RDG regarding the commissioning, scope, or publication of this report, if available.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)

Our response:

Information not held.

Searches were conducted within our Research team who advised that they did not hold a copy of the report or any associated agreements.

We have contacted the Rail Delivery Group and understand that the report has been circulated by them to rail members and is publicly available on a commercial basis via a publisher's website. The agreement in relation to the research was between the RDG and Cambridge University.
